

Picture Perfect

Year 4 have been experimenting with colour. We have been learning about the primary colours and have had a go at mixing secondary colours. We have also been experimenting with tone and we loved picking out our favourite colours. These skills will help us in the coming weeks when we work towards creating our own picture of Darlington, in the style of the artist Matthew Ellwood.

