

Steve Skidmore

Year 4 loved getting to know the author Steve Skidmore this week on his live zoom call. He told us all about the books he had written and his favourite parts about planning and writing books. He got us hooked in with his hilarious readings of some of his favourite books - he even ended up covered in custard. We can wait to read more!

