

Printing Workshop with Adrian Moule

We were so lucky to have a professional print-maker in school to show the children some new printing techniques. The children got their hands onto lots of new tools and materials. Well done to all the children who followed instructions so carefully to produce some outstanding prints!

